

ARMY MUSEUMS OGILBY TRUST

Researching an Individual Soldier

The Regimental and Corps Museums within the AMOT network hold a wealth of information about the men and women who served in the British Army. If you know the Regiment or Corps which is associated with your research, we recommend that you contact the relevant museum. Contact information for museum can be found in the AMOT Museum Directory, available online on this website, or please feel free to get in touch if you are unsure which collection to contact.

Please Note:

Museums do not hold service records of individuals. The UK Government website provides instructions on requesting records.

Official records of service are filled with military jargon and abbreviations, which can make them confusing to understand. After receiving the records, most museums will provide an interpretation of them, allowing for a greater understanding of the individuals' Army career.
